CRAWFORD GRAND.

Zanzic, the magician, will make his appearance at the Crawford Grand on Sunday evening next. This man of wonder performs feats that seem to be superhuman and is regarded with awe by all who have seen him. His reputation has brought him to the notice of even kings and all magicians call him master. Much of his work is the result of long and continuous practice, study and research. He really does what to every one who sees it is absolutely impossible, and which is only accomplished by himself by reason of his own cleverness and of a phenomenal de velopment of manual dexterity.
